Rules of the vote:

- 1) Votes are counted as one per household.
- 2) If more than one vote is received from a household, it will only be counted once if any subsequent votes from the household are the same outcome.
- 3) If a household votes more than once but the votes are different, that household's vote is disqualified.
- 4) A minimum of 40% of member households require to participate in order for the ballot to be recognised.
